

Dr. Salmon's pills, spirit, drops, and balsam Prepared and made at his house at the east-end of Pauls, next door to the Free-school, London. Published by authority. [London : s.n., 1674 ESTC R219877 4 p.]

1. OUR PILLS cure the Scurvy, Dropsie, Jaundice, Gout, Agues, Feavers, Kings-Evil, Rickets, Melancholly, Lethargy, Frensie, Madness, stinking-breath, shortness of Breath, Green-sickness, want of Appetite, Vomiting, stoppage of the Stomach, Liver and Spleen, Worms, stoppages of the Reins and Bladder, heat of Urine, Barrenness in Women, stoppage of their Courses, Fits of the Mother, and other Diseases belonging to that Sex; Dropsie, Scurvy, Gout and Agues they have often cured (in a month, three weeks, yea in fourtee[...] dayes time) and that some[...]im[...]s when hope of Recovery has been past. They are an excellent, safe, a[...]d gentle Purge, purging by Stool, Flegm, Choler and Melancholly. They dispose old Ulcers, Fistulaes, running Sores, or other breakings-out, to a speedy healing, by purging away the evil humors which feed them. They rectify most Distempers of the Head, quicken the Senses, clear the Sight, add a good colour to the Face, and make the Body able to withstand Diseases. They purifie, cleanse, and sweeten the Blood, resist Corruption and Putrifaction of Humors, and Diseases thence proceeding, afflicting the Head, Stomach, Liver, Spleen, Gall, Reins, Bladder, or Joynts. In a word, these Pills are a cheap, certain, and easie help for most Diseases happening to the Bodies of Man, Woman, or Child, as some thousands of persons in this Kingdom can upon their own knowledg testify; Performing what is here spoken of, with|out hazard of Body, Purse, or Reputation.

II.

Our SPIRIT cures almost all diseases of the Head, Breast, and Lungs; as Headach, Vertigo or Giddiness, dimness of the [...]ness of Breath, difficulty of Breathing, kills worms, cures the Rickets, Dropsie, Scurvy, and Gout; dissolves and brings away the Stone and Gravel; and indeed performs all things that Our Pills do, containing all the Vertues of them in as full and ample measure as we have before declared: For this is only the Spirit of our Pills, being extracted from them, and only prepared for the sakes of Children, and such other persons as cannot swallow Our Pills; and therefore every one may chuse which they like best. It is exceeding pleasant, and purges nobly without making sick.

III.

Our Cordial DROPS are a wonderful Restorative in Con|sumptions (curing those which have been given over by many Physicians restoring radical moisture, and comforting every member and part of Mans Body. They give ease in the Tooth-ach immediately, and in pains of the Ears; helping most Diseases of the Breast and Lungs, as Coughs, Defluxions of Rheum Vomiting and Loathing of Meats. They ease almost in a moment any pain and griping of the Breast, Bowels or Joints proceeding of Wind, Colds or Surfeits, or any other cause whatsoever; making a lively countenance, a chearful heart, and a healthful disposition. They give ease instantly in the Stone and Gravel, whether in the Reins or Bladder, breaking, dissolving, and bringing of it away. They are an antidote against all manner of Poison, Venom, biting of Mad dogs [...] excellent thing against many other Diseases, as well in the humors and solid parts, as in the Spirits; taking away heaviness and melancholly; performing all their operations with great safety, speed, dexterity, and ease; being fitted for all persons of what age, sex, or quality soever; strengthening the Brain and Memory, fortifying the Senses, chearing, the Heart, comforting Nature, restoring the Body, and reviving all the Spi|rits, natural, vital and animal.

IV.

Our BALSAM is eminent against Pains, Sprains, Swellings, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Scabs, Wounds, Sores, old Ulcers, Fistulaes, and the like, though of long standing. It is very good against the Itch, Pimples, Tettors, Ringworms, Morphew, Scurf, Biting of Venomous Beasts, or any deformity or breaking-out whatsoever, by strengthening the parts it is applied to and therefore is of good use in weak Limbs, shrinking of the Sinews and for any Wound, Cut or Bruise in the Head, or any other part. It is very good to anoint with in Palsies, Gouts, Sciatica, Numbness; for which Diseases, no other Medicine is better. It comforts the Nerves and Joynts and is very good against the Cramp, or any outward pain [...] truly Noble Balsam, doing of it self all the intentions of Curing: It ripens Swellings, cleanses Ulcers, breeds Flesh, and skins any Wound or Sore, not suffering corruption, putrifaction, or dead flesh there; being really and in truth the poor Countrymans present help to have recourse to in time of need.

V.

With these Medicaments we cured one Elizabeth Peters, a Shoemakers Wife in Angel-Alley in Bethlehem, of a deep Consumption: We cured one Ambrose Webb, at the three-Compasses in Westbury-street, of a great bleeding at Nose, and the Scurvy. We cured a Servant of the said Ambrose of the Scurvy and Dropsie. We cured the same Servant afterwards of malignant Ulcers in his feet and toes. We cured a Man who had gotten the POX, after he had been twice fluxt with Oyntments. We cured another of the POX, (who must here be nameless) when he was broke out into Botches, Boyls and Ulcers almost all over his whole body. We cured a Youth, the son of one William Ogbon a Taylor, near the Black-Boy in Barnaby-street, of a long tedious Ague and Madness. We cured one Edmond Whitaker of a languish|ing disease, when hope of Life was dispaired of. We cured one John Leek, at the Fishmongers-Arms without Cripplegate, extreemly diseased of the Gout. We cured one Robert Cotton at Greenwich of a long and tedious Quartan-Ague. We cured one Cox in Well and Bucket Alley in Old-street, of great Obstructions of the Liver & Spleen, and of the Scurvy. We cured one Fruin a Cutler, next door to the Bull in Cheapside, of the Scurvy, Melancholly, and a Pestilential Tumor under one of his Armholes. We cured a Cornish|man (at one Mary Bouchiers at the Corner house by Long-Alley end in great Moor fields) of the Gout, although near threescore years of age, and having gone for about twelve years on Crutches. We cured one Tho Chew at the Green-Man & Still, a Distiller without Smithfield-Bars, of the Gout. We cured one John Clark a Taylor, at the Castle without Smithfield-Bars, of a Surfeit and violent Feaver. We cured one Elizabeth Speed at an Oyl-shop in Duke street near Lincolns-Inn-fields, of terrible fore and painful Breasts. We cured one Eliz. Frankton, a Cutlers Wife in Petty-France, of a violent Feaver and Surfeit. We cured one John Knight [p.4] in Wheeler-street of the Scurvy and Gout, pains all over his body. We cured one Nicholas Earl at the Cup in Long-Alley, of the Dropsie. We cured one Oaks in Fox-yard in Whitecross street, of an eminent and painful Tumor in the Cods. We cured one Joan Ingram, near the Bear in Moor-fields, of the Gout. We cured one Anthony Gesture, at the Cock in Wapping, of a Consumption. We cured one Abigail Knight, at the Hospital gate in Smithfield, of a Pleurisie.

Together with more than a thousand others, which Secresie, Brevity, and our private Interest engages us to conceal: these things being only related for confirmation of the Truths aforesaid, and satisfaction of the Incredulous.

VI.

Lastly, the full use of these Medicaments in every Disease mentioned, is contained in a little Book, which is alwayes given with them, where you may find directions at large. The price of a Box of Pills (containing five, six, seven, or more Purges) is Two shillings six-pence; the price of a Glass of our Purging Spirit, the same: the price of a Glass of Our Drops (containing six, seven, eight, or ten Doses) One shilling six-pence: And of a Box of our Balsam, a shilling. These Medicaments are cheap, safe, and durable; for they will keep many years, and work all their good effects as well ten or twenty years hence, as now. They are sealed up with our proper Signet, bearing a Lion couchant with a Star over him: And are to be sold by

Mattha Frip at Cows in the Isle of Wight.

And at the Author's House at the East end of Pauls, next door to the Free-School; where he may be spoke with every day from morning till four in the afternoon; and will with the blessing of God, undertake the Cure of any Disease (if curable) in Man, Woman, or Child, and perform the same with as great Care, as much Ease, in as short time, and for as small Charge, as may in Reason be expected, as some thousands in this City can upon their own experience witness.
